Ronald J. Pion, Stevan Altman, Laura Hyatt, Steve Altman, Ron Linder : Home Healthcare Telecommunications: Technology to Improve Revenues before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Home Healthcare Telecommunications: Technology to Improve Revenues:

Univ. of California, Los Angeles. Reviews communications technology as applied to healthcare delivery. Examines new telephone innovations, support services, the economics of home care, and the future of healthcare. For administrators. Foreword by C. Everett Koop. Softcover.
