Joseph S. Ferezy : The Chiropractic Neurological Examination before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Chiropractic Neurological Examination:

About the Author Dr. Ferezy is a native of New York City, New York. He received his Doctor of Chiropractic degree in 1982 from Northwestern College of Chiropractic (NWCC), where he also received certification in meridian therapy (including acupuncture). Dr. Ferezy later completed a two year residency in Clinical Sciences (Neurology) and later served as an instructor and ultimately at the rank of assistant professor at NWCC. Dr. Ferezy is a Diplomate of the American Chiropractic Academy of Neurology and a Fellow of the International Academy of Chiropractic Neurology. He is author of the chiropractic textbook, "The Chiropractic Neurological Examination" by Aspen Publishers. Dr. Ferezy has published many professional articles, and was awarded a 2nd place "Best Scientific Paper Award" by the American Chiropractic Association Journal of Chiropractic. Dr. Ferezy has been the program coordinator and lead lecturer for the Neurology Diplomate Programs for Northwestern Health Science University, New York Chiropractic College, University of Bridgeport Chiropractic College and Palmer Chiropractic University. Dr. Ferezy has been the key speaker at hundreds of professional lecture engagements including several international engagements. He has served as a test developer and proctor for the Minnesota Board of Chiropractic Examiners and as an expert witness for the State of Iowa. He has also served as president of the International Academy of Chiropractic Neurology (IACN) and the International Board of Chiropractic Neurology (IBCN) and currently serves as the Executive Director of the IACN. Dr. Ferezy maintained a private practice for 25 years. Dr. Ferezy's chiropractic practice employed a wide range of complementary and alternative treatments including manipulation, acupuncture, decompressive traction, and other chiropractic physiotherapies at the Ferezy Clinic of Chiropractic and Neurology, located in Windsor Heights, Iowa.
