Worth readingBy doug kortyThis new edition appears to be significantly improved over the 2008 edition. Worth reading. Another good book on this subject from Nolo is Long-Term Care: How to Plan Pay for It by Joseph L. Matthews, Jack Chekijian.Midwest Independent Research, educational websites. Eldercare, mwir-eldercare.blogspot. There is information and a book list on nursing homes here.

In this book, you will learn all the legal means to protect your assets: the Federal Spousal Impoverishment Act, Medicaid trusts, and Medicare supplemental insurance. This book explains the complicated issues, terminology, and planning strategies of asset protection to the layperson.
